BOBASHELA...

DEDICATION

The lives of the three persons to whom we dedicate this annual express the highest Christian ideals and principles. They have given us guidance as we seek to live the good and abundant life and as we strive to develop ourselves mentally, physically, and spiritually. What is perhaps more important, they have inspired us to endeavor throughout life to make the abundant life possible for all men.

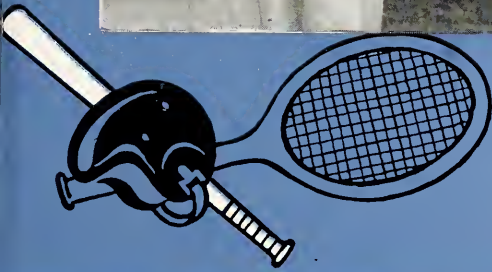

So it is with sincere love and appreciation that we dedicate the 1951 Bobashela to. . .

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Doug Hammond - - - - - President

Franz Posey - - - - - Vice-President

Betty Jo Davis - - - - Secretary-Treasurer

Looking back over the year, this senior class seems to have done nothing abnormal. Perhaps because they have been confronted with a world situation that could affect greatly their future, these 1951 seniors have strived to do things just as always. They have spent hours in the Grill talking—sometimes of draft laws and the uselessness of war; they have talked “jobs”—not ever overlooking the service and defense; they have crammed for comprehensives, boned for tests, yelled at football and basketball games, played in intramurals; they have attended the usual round of meetings and taken in their share of parties; they have chatted jokingly—and thought seriously.

They have done what normal seniors in normal times would have done—held fast to today and reached unhesitantly for tomorrow, feeling perhaps, that Millsaps has given them what it will take to face this world—confidence in themselves, their God, and the years after '51.

The "South's Best Singers" have earned this title because of hard work and the superior quality of their director Alvin Jon King. Affectionately called "Pop," he is an inspiration to each singer. Among the many activities of this group are the presentation of Handel's "The Messiah" at Christmastime and the annual tour made each spring.

FOOTBALL

The big news in sports at Millsaps this year was the resignation of Coach Doby Bartling after nearly five years as head coach and athletic director. Prior to his resignation Coach "Doby" had led the Majors football squad to heights, as they rolled over fine opponents, losing only to the arch-rival Choctaws. This last season was Coach Bartling's most successful season of his rule as head mentor.

Millsaps 19—Southwestern 6.

Dropping a powerful first half attack, the Majors rolled to victory in their lid lifter. "Snake" Deaton scored first on a pass from Price Sneed; Johnny Miller, the big gun of the Purples' offense all season, scored on a 56 yard dash; then Billy Robinson tallied on a line plunge following a sensational 72 yard run.

Millsaps 14—Sewanee 7.

Playing perhaps their best game of the season the Majors beat the Mountain Tigers for the first time in history. Johnny Miller scored both touchdowns from a short distance out. Frosh Billy Robinson, celebrating the birth of his daughter, set up the second Major TD with a 44 yard run. Truly it was a great team victory with the Major line playing the larger part.

Millsaps 20—Bethel 19.

The Cats from the hills in Tennessee were almost too much for the Majors with their big, subsidized squad. Johnny Miller got two and Robinson got one, but Dave Williams saved the night with his accurate extra point kicking. A blocked punt set up the final Major score with less than five minutes left to play in the game.

Millsaps 7—Miss. College 19.

The ole Choc's jinx held once again. They got two quick touchdowns in the first quarter and held on. The only Major tally came on the first play after the half on Johnny Miller's 54 yard run.

COACH DOBY BARTLING

Millsaps 7—Hendrix 0.

On a bad night, playing on a rain-soaked field, the Majors edged the Hendrix lads from Arkansas. Robinson scored in the third period after a 73 yard drive—another game where the Major linemen played an ungloried fine game.

Millsaps 18—Howard 7.

In their best showing before the home crowd the Majors took this homecoming clash. T. W. Lewis scored first, scampering 75 yards on a punt return. Behind 7-6 at halftime, the Purples went to town with Miller going over on a 15 yard naked reverse, and then tossing a pass to Deaton for another TD and Purple victory.

GIRLS' SPORTS

What do we, the co-eds, remember when we think of the girls' athletic department and all its branches and activities and members? We remember the stiff competition, the all-out effort and fun of intramurals. . . the early morning hikes over grassy hills, slick with dew; and afterwards, the smell of coffee and bacon and the warmth of the fire . . . the Majorette Club with Onie working and worrying over the minutes, a little squabbling and much laughter and informal discussions at meetings, Estes trying to live up to her title of Parliamentarian, everyone included in the joys and achievements and hardwork that the Club was heir to . . . tennis games in the broiling sun . . . a few rounds of golf in the rain . . . Miss Decell and her helpfulness, her friendliness, and her sincerity . . . the cool, fresh breezes from the river on horse-back rides . . . the executive board of the Majorettes meeting in any nook or corner at the oddest times . . . the fellowship of the campfire on retreats, and the songs we sang, and the friends we laughed with . . . Peebles' blue satin shorts . . . play days . . . Penny's deep voice and ready laugh . . . sore muscles after that first wonderful day of basketball . . . snappy ping pong days . . . the clean smell of the bowling alleys and the resounding sound of balls against pins . . . crafts . . . Marion's style of volley ball . . . Missie . . . folk dancing . . . Mim's overhead shooting . . . rummage sales . . . the excitement and whispers before tap day . . . stunt night . . . swimming and sun bathing in the spring . . . work . . . play . . . friends.
